

WHAT IS A DENTURE RELINING?

Once we lose teeth, the bone keeps on shrinking for rest of our life.

So because of the shrinkage of bone, some space develops between denture and gums. As the result denture stops fitting well and it feels loose.

This can be treated by adding some material to the denture to close the gap. And as a result the denture starts fitting well again.

Before Reline

After Reline

