

WHAT IS AN IMPLANT CROWN ?

An implant crown is an artificial tooth which is attached to the implant with a connecting piece called an abutment.

There are many designs of an implant crown. We prefer to make a screw retained crown that has a hole through the crown. We put screwdriver through the hole to tighten the crown to the implants.

