

WHAT IS IMPLANT STABILITY MONITORING?

Once the implant has gone through 3-4 months of healing phase, we need to check stability of the implant to make sure its ready to receive the crown or prosthesis.

There are some instruments designed to evaluate the stability of an implant which gives us an objective measurement of implant stability in form of numbers.

